

HANS GÁL · WORK NOTES

Promenadenmusik

for military band · 1926

|                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Movements          | Gavotte, Ländler, Marsch                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Instrumentation    | picc, fl, ob (ad lib.), 4xcl, Eb-cl, bsn (ad lib.); 2xflügelhorn, 2xtenorhorn, 2xtrumpet, 2xHn, bariton, 2xtromb, 2xbombardon; perc                                                                                                                                       |
| Duration           | 11 minutes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Publisher          | Schott                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Availability       | in print: SHS 1007 (parts: 1007-70)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| First performance  | Donaueschingen, July 1926; Militärmusik des Ausbildungsbattalions des Infanterie-Regiments 14; H. Scherchen, cond.                                                                                                                                                        |
| Other performances | Claremont Winds/Tony Mazzaferro, Claremont (CA), Jan. 2004William & Mary Wind Ensemble/Richard Marcus, Williamsburg, (VA), Dec. 2015CCM Wind Orchestra/Sebastian Serrano, Cincinnati (OH), Oct. 2016Frost Wind Ensemble/Christian Noon, Miami (FL), Oct. 2016 |

Printed music

Digital sheet music

Recordings

Music for Wind Ensemble and Concert Band

Music for Wind Ensemble and Concert Band

Paul Hindemith, Ernst Toch, Hans Gál, Ernst Krenek (includes Gal: Promenadenmusik for wind band)

Deutsches Symphony Orchestra, Berlin

Conductor: Roger Epple

Wergo: WER66412

Audio CD DDD (1)

Donaueschingen 1926

Donaueschingen 1926

Landesblasorchester Baden-Württemberg

Harry D. Bath

Includes Promenadenmusik für Militärorchester

Animato ACD6005-3

2001

View this work online